To commemorate the APEC Conference (Asia Pacific Economic Conference) in 1997. The APEC members at that time included 18 countries in the Pacific Rim including the United States represented by President Bill Clinton and Canada hosted by Prime Minister Jean Cretien. The leaders held their luncheons in the National Glass Atrium at Mackenzie house at the University of British Columbia.

As Executive Vice president of National Glass Ltd. I spear headed and coordinated the planning, sponsorship , construction and completion of the National Glass Atrium. This National Atrium was dedicated to the people of Canada in memory of the founder of National Glass Ltd. Mr. Zaki Yehia
